

Dear Rita O. Christensen,

On behalf of Pfizer ApS ("Pfizer"), we are pleased to provide the following support to LYLE lymfekræft og leukæmi for Childrens' booklet: Rosalies mareridt.

To support LyLe (Patient Advocacy Group for Lymphoma, Leukemia and MDS9) with an educational grant to support a project on a children's (6-10 years age) booklet about blood disease/leukemia. The main objective(s) is to help and support children who have a parent which have a serious blood disease. The book is intended to help children deal with thoughts and feelings and should help answering some of the many questions that arises. The book has 8 chapters and after each chapter there are questions, which are meant for reflection of the child's own situation. The book should help children to become more secure through their parents' period of illness. We hope that this book will inspire parents and children to talk about blood disease and make a difficult time a little easier which is of interest to Pfizer because we think that the Association is doing a great and important work for patients and relatives, therefore we would like to support production of Children's book about blood disease. The association is also an important collaborator for Pfizer. Support of such a project expresses our commitment to patients and hematology area as a whole. The payment will be made direct to the organization. Funding will be provided upon internal processing of the funding, which we would endeavor to complete by August 15, 2022 on a best-efforts basis in the amount of kr 67.031,25 incl. VAT. The contract shall run from August 15, 2022 to August 31, 2022.

The patient association confirms by their signature that the support from Pfizer does not exceed the patient association's set limit for support. The Patient Association also confirms that the total support does not exceed 50% of the Patient Association's annual budget.
